

WELCOME TO MANNHEIM

First time in Mannheim? Only here for a short trip? We have put together the most important sites, locations and activities to help you experience Mannheim's diversity.

Here, you will find inspiration for a short or extended stay in the "city of squares", how Mannheim is named for the streets laid out in a grid pattern. Only here for a flying visit? Check the tips for one to three hours for the absolute must-sees. If you have a little more time to discover the city, you will find further suggestions here for the first, second and third day of your visit. These are grouped together in themed sections and will give you some ideas for your agenda.

Please note that it may not be possible to visit all the suggestions in the specified timeframe. We therefore recommend to select individual attractions.

TIPS FOR ONE DAY: RECREATION

10 Luisenpark

Theodor-Heuss-Anlage 2, 68165 Mannheim
Relaxing in nature, in the middle of the city? In "Luisenpark", the great city park, both young and old can enjoy a holiday feeling every day.

11 TECHNOSEUM

Museumsstraße 1, 68165 Mannheim
A hands-on museum for little discoverers, great inventors, doers, and everyone brave enough to give it a go. Two hundred years of technological and social history and more than 100 experiment stations are waiting for you to discover them.

12 Harbour tour

Starting point: Pier "Mannheim-Kurpfalzbrücke"
Mannheim, the city between two rivers. What better way to experience it than by boat? A harbour tour is the best way to view the port area and the large container ships on the rivers Rhine and Neckar.

13 District Little Istanbul

Starting point: G1, 68159 Mannheim
Kofta, pide, apple tea, gold jewellery, and bridal fashion as far as the eye can see – a voyage of discovery for the senses. Dive into Mannheim's international diversity.

 RESTAURANT RECOMMENDATION ———
Istanbul Restaurant
H1, 14, 68159 Mannheim
Turkish specialities from the grill in a lively atmosphere.

EVENINGS

14 District Jungbusch

Starting point: Jungbuschstraße, 68159 Mannheim
This creative and trendy neighbourhood has popular bars, clubs, galleries and restaurants for an eventful and unforgettable evening.

TIPS FOR ONE DAY: EXPERIENCE NATURE

15 Bike ride along the river Neckar

Starting point: Hans-Reschke-Ufer, 68165 Mannheim
The cycle route "Neckartal-Radweg" runs along the banks of the Neckar. Enjoy a wonderful day out along the river as it winds through idyllic villages and passes lush fields. Follow the signposted route to visit the neighbouring town and former royal seat of Heidelberg, among other places.

16 Waldpark & Reißinsel Nature Reserve

Starting point: Stephanienufer, 68163 Mannheim
This extensive green area offers meadows, streams and an abundance of trees and animals. The "Waldpark" merges seamlessly into the "Reißinsel", one of the most important protected meadow areas in the Upper Rhine region. A real treat for nature lovers.

 RESTAURANT RECOMMENDATION ———
Purino
Strandbadweg 1, 68199 Mannheim
The "Strandbad", Mannheim's former bathing beach is home to what must be one of the most beautiful water-side culinary attractions. Built on stilts, the restaurant offers authentic Italian cuisine.

TOP
ATTRACTIONS
IN MANNHEIM

TIPS FOR ONE, TWO OR THREE HOURS IN MANNHEIM:

1 Wasserturm and Friedrichsplatz
 Friedrichsplatz, 68161 Mannheim
 The historic water tower which is a famous landmark in Mannheim is located in the middle of one of the most beautiful Art Nouveau complexes in Europe, directly on "Friedrichsplatz" square. The impressive green area with fountains, footpaths and arcades is a popular meeting place for locals and visitors alike. Cafés and restaurants invite you to linger, and the illuminated fountain provide a spectacular light show in the evenings.

CAFÉ RECOMMENDATION
Dolceamaro
 Friedrichsplatz 13, 68165 Mannheim
 Snacks and coffee specialties in a cosy atmosphere.

2 Barockschloss Mannheim and Jesuitenkirche
 Bismarckstraße, 68161 Mannheim
 Mannheim Baroque Palace is the second-largest Baroque palace in Europe and sits impressively at the edge of the squares. The former residence of the prince-electors with its extensive forecourt is an absolute must for lovers of castles and court life. A stone's throw away, you will find the Jesuit Church, one of the most impressive sacred buildings in Mannheim. With its impressive Baroque exterior and its magnificent interior, the former court church is a real highlight of the city.

3 Paradeplatz
 O1, 68161 Mannheim
 This large square is at the heart of the city centre. In the middle, you will find the Grupello fountain, with ten paths leading to it in a star formation. The green areas and benches are the perfect place for a short break.

4 Marktplatz, Altes Rathaus with St. Sebastian
 G1, 68159 Mannheim
 The market square, home of the old town hall and parish church of St Sebastian, provides the Baroque setting for a weekly market. The square has many restaurants and an international flair.

5 Reiss-Engelhorn-Museen (rem)
 C5, 68159 Mannheim
 The museums "Reiss-Engelhorn" are the largest municipally funded museum complex in southern Germany. The four exhibition buildings form a vibrant museum quarter in the heart of the city around the square "Toulonplatz".

CAFÉ RECOMMENDATION
Eis Fontanella
 O4, 5, 68161 Mannheim
 The "Spaghetti-Eis" – an ice cream made to look like a bowl of spaghetti – was invented here.
